PLEASE NOTE

- The academic year spans from February 18, 2024, to November 24, 2024, covering a total of 40 weeks.
- St Ann's College offers a flexible 34-week contract option for students who may choose to return home during holidays or temporarily leave the College during the academic year.
- Students who exceed the 34-week commitment will be subject to a charge of $72 for each additional day of residence.
- For students with 40-week contract, no additional day charges apply.
- Students initially on a 34-week contract, and have paid for 28 additional days, will receive up to 14 days free, effectively transitioning to a 40-week commitment.
- The Council reserves the right to adjust fees during the academic year in response to unforeseen circumstances.
- In the event of a student leaving the College before the academic year concludes, they are obligated to pay full fees for the remaining academic duration and will forfeit half of their room deposit.
- The Council maintains the authority to impose a surcharge when a student is admitted to residence for less than the full academic year.
- Accounts will be forwarded directly to parents at the specified address unless alternative instructions are provided to the College.
